Louisiana will host the “Ranger Basics” and “Ranger Essentials” Training Courses. These are national training events that are required for all Royal Rangers leaders to complete to qualify for the new Leaders Medal of Excellence. These training events will be part of our annual RR Leaders Equipping Conference. Both “Basics” and “Essentials” begin on Friday night.

We will be providing Leadership Adventure Activities this year. Five sessions have been planned: There will be a Session on 1) Facilitating the Leadership Merits, 2) Chainsaw Safety, 3) Cast Iron/Dutch Oven Cooking, and 4) Ranger Safety. Also, a featured activity will be 5) Revised Frontier Brigade Activities. Participants will learn the new style of mentoring boys that will be used in the Frontier Brigade at the Louisiana Boys Adventure Academy. Look for updates on www.larr.org.

RR Leaders awards are available from the national or district RR offices. Completed application forms should be sent to the district RR office no later than January 13.

Contact Commander Craun at lroyalrangers@gmail.com if you have any questions.
